2.8.1.2.5 CENTREX TARIFF CONTRACT EXTENSION OPTION

Offering Period: May 10, 2009 through May 9, 2010

(C)

This offer consists of a Centrex tariffed contract extension option for customers with an existing Centrex tariffed contract, excluding subscribers to Joint User Service. At any point during the last 12 months of a Centrex term contract, the customer may extend their contract for either an additional 12-month or 24-month period at the same rate provided under the original contract. Subject to the Company's right to seek to discontinue this option to extend the contract period or to otherwise change the terms and conditions of this option, the customer may exercise this option up to three separate times.

Additional Terms and Conditions

- (1) Customers who exercise the option to extend the term of the contract are not entitled to a different rate based on the overall term of the contract as extended (e.g., customers who initially have a 36-month contract and extend it by an additional 24 months are not entitled to the rate allowed under a 60-month contract).
- (2) An extension will begin on the expiration date of the existing contract or extension.
- (3) Standard termination charges apply for partial or total discontinuance of the service prior to the expiration date of the term. (C)
- (4) Upon the expiration date, as noted in the Company billing records of a contract, or contract extension option, if the customer does not elect to subscribe to a new contract and does not request discontinuance of the service, service will be continued on a month-to-month basis. (C)
- (5) The month-to-month rates currently in effect at the time of expiration of the contract will apply.
- (6) Once on a month-to-month plan the customer will not have an additional service commitment and will no longer be subject to termination charges.
- (7) The month-to-month service rates will be subject to Company-initiated rate changes.
- (8) Customers participating in this promotion are required to sign an addendum.
